

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

HONESDALE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Honesdale, Sept. 12.—The new chapel being erected at Honesdale will soon be ready for dedication.

There will not be any services in the Baptist church on Sunday. The other Honesdale churches will hold regular services.

Mrs. G. W. Lane is in Atlantic City for a three weeks' sojourn.

Hon. Joel Hill was Wayne, the Democratic nominee for state senator, has chosen as his conferees F. B. Kimble, John Kuhbach, Bernard Kelly and J. E. Tiffany. They will meet with the Susquehanna conferees at the St. Charles Hotel, Scranton, Sept. 16.

The fortieth annual fair of the Wayne County Agricultural society, which will be held Sept. 23, 24, 25 and 26, promises to be of unusual interest. Buildings have been repaired, a new grand stand erected. There will be exciting horse races and a fine display of farm products.

Herbert L. Labarr has been elected secretary of the "Engines" company, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of B. W. Fitch.

Misses Louisa M. Durland, Mary A. Menner and Cora L. Watts will serve at the Golf club house on Saturday afternoon.

Andrew Thompson and family, who have been abroad for several months, will sail from Queenstown for home, September 17.

It is fortunate for Honesdale that the proprietors of the factories and shops have access to the culm dumps of the old Delaware and Hudson raily road, where they have secured fine coal, with which their works have been kept running. As a result of the coal strike, these old fills and refuse dumps, which have been forming ever since the canal started, will probably be screened and much valuable coal found.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Gardner, who have for some time been guests at the home of the former's parents, have returned to their home in Pittston.

Miss Grace A. Corey will go to New York on Sunday. On Monday she will enter the Hefley institute, of Brooklyn, as an instructor.

Miss Anna M. Ball will spend the forthcoming two weeks with friends in Pittston and Clark's Green.

The Delaware and Hudson paymaster will pay Honesdale employees on Monday next.

Rev. William H. Swift and John T. Ball will represent the Honesdale church at the meeting of the Lackawanna Presbytery in Pittston on Monday next.

Sunday afternoon the West Side Browns, of Scranton, and the Honesdale team will play the closing game of the season on the Honesdale ground.

HAWLEY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Hawley, Sept. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. James Palmer returned home Thursday from a two weeks' visit in Deposit and Binghamton.

Mrs. W. C. Knapp and daughter, Wilma, are the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Speers, in Matamoras, Pike county.

Ed. Schardt was a Honesdale visitor Monday.

Charles McKenna, of Honesdale, was in town Thursday.

Miss Knapp was in Paupack Saturday.

Miss Ella Hopeman died at her home of consumption on Thursday afternoon. Miss Hopeman was a High school graduate, class of '02, and was valedictorian of her class. She was a member of the Twentieth Century club and a great favorite with all who knew her. The funeral will be held Sunday from her late home.

Jacob Sell is visiting friends in town. P. J. Bower was in Scranton Tuesday. Thomas Ruane, of Carbondale, was visitor here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kelleher left Monday for their home in Massillon, O., after spending the summer here.

Miss A. Gussie Wells is spending her vacation in Port Jervis.

Miss Sarah E. Knapp has accepted a position in J. E. Tethers' dental office.

August Seltman left town Saturday for Atlantic City.

Miss Kate Deltzer has gone to Scranton, where she has found a position.

Miss Cella Langan left Monday for New York city.

The Hon. James Milham and T. F. Wall are delegates to the Republican county convention to be held Monday, Sept. 22, at Honesdale.

HARFORD.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Harford, Sept. 12.—Miss Maud Burklin, of Glenwood, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. S. Withers.

Hoyt Pease is attending school at Factoryville.

Miss Laura Jackson who has been visiting her cousin, Miss Carolyn Brewster, has returned to her home in Binghamton.

E. E. James attended the convention at Factoryville, Tuesday.

Bruce McConnell, of New York, has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McConnell.

At the home of Mr. Johnston, in Clifford, Sept. 10, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lillian Johnston to Mr. Clarence W. Harford.

Mr. and Mrs. Tiffany left for an extended wedding trip to New York and other places.

A reception was given in honor of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hawkins on the return from their vacation Sept. 10. Ice cream and cake was served by the young ladies and young men's union class of the Sunday school.

Mrs. H. S. Alworth, of Scranton, is visiting relatives here.

E. M. Watson was in Scranton, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Tingley, of Foster, visited her brother, F. P. Tingley, this week.

The M. E. Aid society met with Mrs. S. B. Osborn, Sept. 11.

HOPBOTTOM.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Hopbottom, Sept. 12.—Mrs. James Raub and daughter, Olive, returned to their home in La Grange, Ill., Thursday.

There will be services in the Universalist church, Sunday evening, Sept. 14. Rev. Herrick will fill the pulpit.

Mrs. G. O. Bailey left for La Grange, Ill., the last of the week.

The soap factory will open next week, under the management of Mr. Plumb.

TUNKHANNOCK.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Tunkhannock, Sept. 12.—At a regular meeting of the Eagle Hose company drill squad last evening, the squad decided to go to Bradford the beginning of next month on the occasion of the state firemen's convention. Among the events of the convention is a drill contest for a prize of $400, the highest that has ever been offered at a state convention for a drill.

The Eagle squad has placed their name on the entry list and will commence active drilling for the event.

Ernest Strumer, leaves Sunday morning for Easton, Maryland, where he will take charge of his brother Oscar's jewelry store for the following twelve days during the latter's absence on a vacation.

Rev. D. M. George and family left this afternoon for Scranton, whence they will start tomorrow for Waterford, N. Y., where he will preach his first sermon at the pastorate of the Welsh Congregational church. Mr. George has been a resident of this city for the past seven years, being pastor of the Congregational church here during all that time, from which duties he resigned last March.

His first sermon as pastor of the Waterford church, Sunday, Sept. 13. His successor as pastor of the Pittston church has not yet been chosen.

The Pittston Male Glee society is arranging for a concert to be given in the Water street Baptist church, Thursday evening, October 30.

A quiet wedding took place in St. Mary's church, Upper Pittston, when Miss Mary Reddington, of that portion of the city, was united in wedlock to T. A. Curry, of New London, Conn. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Grey.

Miss Lulu M. Keddie, the popular soprano soloist of this city, and Mr. Joseph Collier, local agent for the Lackawanna Steam Laundry, were united in marriage Wednesday.

The ceremony was performed in the St. Mary's Catholic church, at Binghamton, N. Y., Rev. Father William McGlynn, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Collier will reside with the former's parents for the present.

J. B. Gilboy, the genial justice of the peace of Duryea, is rejoicing over the arrival of a baby boy at his home.

Alex. Davis, entertained a company of about forty friends at his home, corner of Oak and Lagrange streets, last evening in honor of his birthday anniversary.

BROOKLYN.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Brooklyn, Sept. 12.—The Tewksbury family reunion was held at the Methodist Episcopal church on Thursday of this week. The Ladies' Aid furnished dinner.

Miss Etta Sage and Leah Sterling began a course of music, under Prof. Southworth, of Keystone academy.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Beckham and son are visiting relatives here.

Charles Fish and E. L. Weston are making a large fish and ice pond on parts of their farms.

A. S. Waldie is putting an addition on his feed store.

The Students Association of Universalists began its sessions here today. Many excellent speakers are in attendance.

Mrs. W. L. Bunell died at her home, Tuesday evening, after an illness of only a few hours. The funeral will be held from her late residence Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Balley Jewett is very ill. Also Mrs. Charles Mead, formerly of this place.

The marriage of Miss Laura Snyder and Mr. Calvin Lathrop took place at her home last Wednesday, in the presence of many guests.

Mr. G. I. Giles is visiting her sons in Pittston and Dalton.

Miss Stella Babson, of Scranton, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Joe Tewksbury.

The telephone to Montrose is now completed, and we now have connection with the Bell system of long distance phones.

D. L. Gardner, of the Correspondence Schools, was looking up students in our town. He secured two more and has a large number already on his list.

UNIONDALE.

From a Staff Correspondent. Uniondale, Sept. 12.—The union picnic of the Presbyterian and Methodist Sunday schools was held at Crystal lake last Saturday.

Thompson Methodists heard the Gospel from the lips of Evangelist Charles Newell Sunday.

Rev. Charles Lee, of Carbondale, favored us with a brief visit one evening this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Shubal Carpenter's garden is one of the finest in town.

Miss Meyers, of Jermy, is being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vail.

At the home of Mrs. A. B. Tingley, at tea Wednesday, the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church held one of its largest and most interesting sessions.

What narrowly escaped being a fatal accident to two at least, took place near the lower crossing Wednesday evening. As Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Raymond were returning home from the Ladies' Aid, with their horse and buggy, soon after crossing the railroad, one of the thills broke and dropped the shaft on the horses' heels.

The horse was frightened and Mr. Raymond held to the lines and guided him so that the shafts entered a ridge on the side of the road. The third threw Mr. Raymond out of the buggy backward, and at the horse's feet. The horse extricated himself and made for home. Mrs. Raymond received no injury, but Mr. Raymond suffered from the shock and a severe flesh wound on his leg. Rev. Mr. Raymond has been with us but a short time, but he has already made a large number of friends and well wishers, who wish his speedy recovery.

WAYMART.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Waymart, Sept. 12.—The delegates elected at the Democratic Saturday night, to the Democratic convention at Honesdale, which convened Monday, were J. C. Danque and B. J. O'Rourke.

Thomas B. Israel, father of Rev. Rogers Israel, of St. Luke's church, Scranton, returned to his home in Scranton today, after spending the summer at the Stephenson residence.

H. C. Ames is quite seriously ill at his home on North Main street.

Charles Harry Buckland, who has been spending the heated term here, has returned to his work in Forest City.

Al. Hendricks, a former resident of this place, was calling on friends Sunday.

Addison J. Merwin was calling on Canaan friends, Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Greiner and son.

of Denver, Col., are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Mary Pearce.

Mrs. Frank J. Hoban, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Doyle, returned to her home in Wilkes-Barre, Wednesday.

Miss Anna Ensign accompanied her cousin, Edna Dimock, to her home in Honesdale for a brief visit.

The Misses Gray, of Beach Lake, are rooming with Mrs. James K. Spry and attending school.

F. J. Cooper, of Scranton, was the guest of his mother here, Wednesday.

PITSTON.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Pittston, Sept. 12.—At a regular meeting of the Eagle Hose company drill squad last evening, the squad decided to go to Bradford the beginning of next month on the occasion of the state firemen's convention. Among the events of the convention is a drill contest for a prize of $400, the highest that has ever been offered at a state convention for a drill.

The Eagle squad has placed their name on the entry list and will commence active drilling for the event.

Ernest Strumer, leaves Sunday morning for Easton, Maryland, where he will take charge of his brother Oscar's jewelry store for the following twelve days during the latter's absence on a vacation.

Rev. D. M. George and family left this afternoon for Scranton, whence they will start tomorrow for Waterford, N. Y., where he will preach his first sermon at the pastorate of the Welsh Congregational church. Mr. George has been a resident of this city for the past seven years, being pastor of the Congregational church here during all that time, from which duties he resigned last March.

His first sermon as pastor of the Waterford church, Sunday, Sept. 13. His successor as pastor of the Pittston church has not yet been chosen.

The Pittston Male Glee society is arranging for a concert to be given in the Water street Baptist church, Thursday evening, October 30.

A quiet wedding took place in St. Mary's church, Upper Pittston, when Miss Mary Reddington, of that portion of the city, was united in wedlock to T. A. Curry, of New London, Conn. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Grey.

Miss Lulu M. Keddie, the popular soprano soloist of this city, and Mr. Joseph Collier, local agent for the Lackawanna Steam Laundry, were united in marriage Wednesday.

The ceremony was performed in the St. Mary's Catholic church, at Binghamton, N. Y., Rev. Father William McGlynn, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Collier will reside with the former's parents for the present.

J. B. Gilboy, the genial justice of the peace of Duryea, is rejoicing over the arrival of a baby boy at his home.

Alex. Davis, entertained a company of about forty friends at his home, corner of Oak and Lagrange streets, last evening in honor of his birthday anniversary.

NICHOLSON.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Nicholson, Sept. 12.—Mrs. John Bailey, of Harrisburg, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Black.

Miss Henrietta Hayden, of New Milford, spent Friday with friends in town.

Miss Kittle Shields, who has been visiting her cousin, Miss Eunice Day, returned to her home in New Milford, Friday night.

Miss Nellie Mack and Mrs. R. M. Niles are visiting friends in Washington, D. C.

Miss Norma Decker, of Falls, is spending a few days with her brother, Dr. V. Decker.

DURVEA.

Olin Jacobs left this morning for Syracuse, where he will enter as a student.

The members of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school will enjoy an outing to Shady grove today.

N. H. Hollis left Monday for Stroudsburg, where he entered as a student at the State Normal school.

Mrs. S. C. Dills was a caller in Scranton on Friday.

Miss Mary Nolan called on friends in this place Thursday.

WITCH'S SPELL.

Killed the Baby After Father Shot a Black Cat. Reading (Pa.) Correspondence of the Philadelphia Times.

Lefoy Thomas Elneshower, the three-year-old child of John Elneshower, which is supposed to have died from a witch's spell, was buried today.

The entire neighborhood is excited over the affair, as several deaths which have occurred in the vicinity recently are attributed to the same cause. In this region there are many persons who have a strong belief in the existence of witches.

Mrs. Elneshower says the witch had been working on her child almost since its birth. "During this time," she continued, "the child suffered tortures, and was afflicted with all kinds of aches and pains. An old woman stopped in front of the house about six weeks ago to see the baby, and since then its sufferings

PICTURE PUZZLE.

FOR THE LITTLE ONES.—Cut out the pictures appearing on this page each day, draw a pencil mark around the hidden object, save them until Saturday, then send them to The Tribune office in an envelope addressed to "Picture Puzzle Department." Enclose in the envelope your name, age and address. The boys and girls who correctly mark the six pictures appearing during the week, and whose answers are first received, will have their names published in The Tribune Monday morning.

Find another fisherman and his dog.

THE TRIBUNE'S "WANT" DIRECTORY.

WANTS, FOR RENTS, FOR SALES

No Order Accepted for Less Than 10 Cents.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES, REAL ESTATE

For Rent.

A BEAUTIFUL single house for rent at No. 9 First Place. Completely furnished, in first-class condition; can be rented at a very reasonable rent, with $4 a month for heat and light. I want nobody but first-class people to apply for this place. Call and see J. C. Zurliffo, 517 Lackawanna avenue, real estate broker.

A BEAUTIFUL house for rent, nine rooms and all modern improvements, at 156 Adams avenue. Vacant now. Lot 40 feet front, with shade trees and beautiful yard in rear. At a very reasonable rent. Call and see J. C. Zurliffo, 517 Lackawanna avenue.

FOR RENT.—To husband and wife, five rooms, bath and storage, $10.00 per month. 617 Adams ave.

FOR RENT.—Two furnished cottages at Lake Sheridan; dry and healthy location; good shade and finest place for a week or month's outing in Northern Pennsylvania. Address H. L. Harding, Factoryville, Pa.

For Sale.

FOR SALE.—About 20 feet of desk counter, surmounted with glass front and two opening lower portion nicely paneled, with drawers and shelves underneath. May be seen at the office of The Tribune.

FOR SALE.—Cider press, daily capacity about 10 bushels; cash payments. A. Noe, 107 Flisk avenue.

FOR SALE.—Organ, fine tone, walnut case; sold quick, $18.00. 531 Spruce st.

JUST ARRIVED with a carload of horses. Saddlers, drivers, general purpose and heavy draughts. Can be seen at Raymond court, E. M. Cobb.

FOR SALE.—A scholarship in the Scranton Business college at a reduction. Apply to Chas. 230, Factoryville, Pa.

FOR SALE.—Cheap, one large new grocery wagon, carrying capacity 4,500 pounds; also one large coffee grinder; can be run by motor or hand power. Apply to E. Moses, 518 Lackawanna avenue.

FOR SALE.—A first class meat market. Owner will work for party. Address 121 Chestnut street, Dunmore, Pa.

Room for Rent.

FRONT ROOM for rent; desirable, 421 Adams avenue.

Wanted-To Rent.

WANTED.—To rent, a good sized barn with at least six stalls, centrally located; not further up an hill than Quincy avenue. Would prefer one with apartment for each man. Call on E. M. Cobb, 219 Lackawanna avenue.

WANTED.—A small house or flat, preferably furnished, in desirable location. To gain attention, state terms. P. O. Box 327.

Furnished Rooms for Rent.

FURNISHED ROOMS for rent, gentlemen preferred.

FOR RENT.—First class furnished rooms, all improvements; price reasonable. Inquire 510 Washington avenue, city.

FURNISHED ROOMS for rent, modern improvements; private family; gentlemen preferred, at 533 Adams avenue.

Wanted.

WANTED.—A small or medium sized writing desk; not too high priced. Address Desk, care of Tribune office.

STENOGRAPHIC WORK outside regular office hours. Prices reasonable. Address R. W. Tribune.

WANTED.—A German girl for general housework in a family of two. Can have every evening off and can sleep home. Call 129 Price street.

Agents Wanted.

LARGE CORPORATION wants energetic General Agent for this county. No experience necessary. For full particulars, write to J. H. Kelleher & Co., State agents, references first list, Philadelphia, Suite 572, No. 100 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.

Salesmen Wanted.

SALESMEN WANTED.—Competent men to handle our line of carbon copying papers, either regular or on the side. Philip Hancock & Co., 13 Union Square, New York City.

Situations Wanted.

SITUATION WANTED.—By a young German girl for general housework, 415 Lavelle court.

SITUATION WANTED.—By a woman as dressmaker, will go out by the day or will take in sewing. Address 913 Pittston avenue.

SITUATION WANTED.—By a woman as cashier. Three and one-half years experience. Also an expert needlewoman. Best of references. Address "Marsh," care The Scranton Tribune.

SITUATION WANTED.—By a boy 14 years old in office or store. Address 153 Dickinson avenue.

Board and Rooms.

VERY DESIRABLE board, can be obtained at 333 Jefferson avenue.

Boarders Wanted.

BOARDERS WANTED.—Will take sum of boarders, three meals by the day and good table board. Address O. K. Dalton, Pa.

Real Estate.

BUSINESS corner lot for sale cheap; one of the best locations in Scranton; money loaned to build. Apply at 57 Lavelle street.

FOR SALE.—200-acre farm; Glenburn. Address M. D. Dalton.

FOR SALE.—Elegant sites for homes in upper Green Ridge; choice neighborhood; neat detached houses for home in Lackawanna county. J. A. Marvino, 138 Sanderson avenue.

Money to Loan.

ANY AMOUNT OF MONEY TO LOAN—quick, slight loss of interest. Money loaned to build. Apply at 57 Lavelle street.

STOCK AND WHEAT TRADERS without delay. Write for our special market letter. Free on application. S. M. Hibbard & Co., members N. Y. Consolidated and Stock Exchange, 44 and 46 Broadway, New York. Established 1854. Long Distance Phone 288 Broad.

Miscellaneous.

PROF. C. A. STUART, B. L. I., teacher of drawing, engravings, paper bags, twin-hall No. 4 Guernsey building. Best result guaranteed; teaching amateur dramatic class, specially.

THE MODEL LAUNDRY, Dunmore, cleanses shirts at $2 each and collars and cuffs at 50c each.

Branch WANT Offices.

Want Advertisements Will Be Received at Any of the Following Drug Stores Until 10 P. M.

Central City—ALBERT SCHULTZ, corner Mulberry street and Webster ave. GUSTAV FICHEL, 630 Adams avenue.

West Side—GEO. W. JENKINS, 101 South Main avenue.

South Scranton—FRED L. TERPPE, 728 Cedar avenue.

North Scranton—GEO. W. DAVIS, corner North Main and Market street.

Green Ridge—CHARLES P. JONES, 157 Dickinson avenue. F. J. JOHNS, 929 Green Ridge.

Petersburg—W. H. KNEPPEL, 1017 Irving avenue.

Dunmore—J. G. BONE & SON.

Help Wanted.

HOME WORK—$40 monthly copying letters; either sex. Send two stamps for catalogue. The Supply Co., 564 Halsted street, Chicago.

Help Wanted—Male. MEN, not over 25 years, to call on old established business. No delivering. Position permanent on the right party. Pay weekly. Glen Brothers, Rochester, N. Y.

CIVIL Service Government Positions. About 10,000 appointments made last year. Only common school education required for examination. Salaries large. Work easy. Catalogue of positions free. Columbian Correspondence College, Washington, D. C.

SALESMAN—Experienced in placing proprietary medicines with retail druggists; high class line; liberal pay. Address stating experience and reference. E. B. Giles & Co., 239 Market street, Philadelphia, Pa.

WANTED.—On account of increased work competent mechanics to work in large railroad shops near Pittsburg; wages, 25 to 27 cents per hour; permanent employment given to satisfactory workers; free railroad transportation furnished from Wilkes-Barre to Pittsburg. For further information, apply to J. Snyder, 80 Mooney building, Buffalo, N. Y., in writing; give date of birth, experience, where last employed, on what kind of work, and when able to report for duty.

Help Wanted—Female. Ladies, we furnish materials and pay $7 to $10 per week.